

BCD Celebrates 20th Founding Anniversary with Hudyaka

By: Maria Cristina L. Arpilleda

Bislig City Division (BCD) commemorated its 20th founding anniversary with a grand celebration dubbed "Hudyaka". The event brought together educators, officials, and stakeholders from across the education sector to honor the achievements of BCD and its dedication to shaping Bisliganon's future through quality education.

Hudyaka, a Visayan word that translates to "celebration," perfectly encapsulated the festive atmosphere at the Bislig City Cultural Center, where the anniversary festivities took place. The event showcased the journey and milestones of BCD over the past two decades, highlighting the significant progress made in improving the city's education system.

As a crucial government agency responsible for managing the education system, BCD's commitment to empowering Bisliganon youth through education has been evident throughout its existence. The anniversary celebration served as an opportunity to reflect on the challenges faced and the triumphs achieved in pursuit of educational excellence.

The event commenced with a heartwarming opening ceremony, where OIC-SDS Gemma A. De Paz delivered the SDO's Major Accomplishments.

During the festivities, the PRAISE committee presented awards to exceptional teachers, school administrators, and non-teaching personnel who have demonstrated outstanding dedication to their profession and have significantly contributed to improving the quality of education in their respective schools and districts. These recognitions served as a testament to the hard work and passion of educators in the division.

One of the highlights of the celebration was a colorful showcase of talents performed by teaching and non-teaching personnel from different districts. The performances not only entertained the audience but also showcased the talents of teachers, promoting unity and pride among attendees.

In her message, OIC-SDS Gemma De Paz expressed her gratitude to the stakeholders in the education sector, including teachers, parents, and partners, for their unwavering support of BCD's mission.
